BIOGRAPHY

Antoine Bermann aka Jeff The Fool has been working on his house music for 7 years now.

Member of the label Thé Chaud Records founded in 2012, he released in September 2018 his first vinyl EP Pay Your House. He delivered a neat and meticulously work, hailed by critics and artists such as Laurent Garnier, DJ Deep, Paul Cut... which enables him to play alongside DJ Deep, Leo Pol or Terrence Parker as well as touring in Russia. Jeff was launched and inspired, with a string of releases including Airport Blossom, warmly received by his fans. After a debut album, Russian Dolls in 2022 and tracks on Nervous Records, Happiness Therapy ... Ever more inspired and well surrounded, he released a new album French Lessons in 2025, featuring numerous collaborations with artists such as Mangabey and Oden&Fatz, allowing him to explore house and its sub-genres and show his versatility as a producer.

As technical in the studio as he is on stage, he has launched a live machine project with an MPC 2500 and synthesizers, which he will be promoting on his forthcoming dates, and is proving to be a fine musician's ear and a talented scratcher behind the turntables at Cabaret Sauvage, Barcelona, Tunis, Italy...
